A 501(c)(3) not-for-profit

Presents a New Open Mic/Party Series

Tuesdays at Twilight

Hosted by American Songbook Today Founder/President, Michael Estwanik
Piano Accompaniment - Bob Navis, Jr., Near West Theatre's Artistic Director

Party with some of Cleveland's finest performers.
Beginning Tuesday, Jan 15th 7-9PM and then the 2nd Tuesday of each month (Feb 12th and March 12th)
Signups for singing begin at 630PM.
The Brothers Lounge, Wine Bar, 11609 Detroit Ave, Cleveland
$5 cash cover charge at door. No food/beverage minimum (but the food at The Brothers Lounge is excellent and very affordable!)

Space is limited, so reservations are highly encouraged! Email michaelsongbook@gmail.com State how many in your party, anyone performing, what song(s). Cell phone number in case we need to reach you. Bring sheet music in your fave key and extra songs. Might be time for more than one. Sing something familiar to audiences which doesn't require eight key changes for our pianist. Songbooks available.

Songs can be of these genres: Broadway, American Songbook standards (old or new), original, film, folk, jazz, rock, special material (humorous) etc. NO rap nor hip hop. Please. Songs must have a melody and a meaningful lyric.

Each "Tuesday at Twilight" will begin with a group sing-along of "Twilight Time" made famous by The Platters. https://youtu.be/M26zWFUPGpE

Next AST Concert: "An Evening of Oscar-Winning Songs"

Thurs, Feb 21, 8PM Nighttown, 12383 Cedar Rd, Cleveland

Visit our new website www.americansongbooktoday.org/

Including our special "Song Videos"

This will be "Something to Sing About."