

Psalm 27 Danny Daniels

Lord, you are my light and my salvation
Lord, you are the strength, the strength of my life.

There is one thing I ask
One thing that I desire
That I may dwell in the house of the Lord
All of my life.

Lord, you keep me safe, safe in your shelter
Lord, you set my feet upon a rock.

There is one thing I ask
One thing that I desire
That I may dwell in the house of the Lord
All of my life.

5775: A Year to Review

Our prayer is characterized by silence ~

Be still and know that I am God!

In that silence we listen for a new word.
God is present in all our lives.
God cares for us, and our life experiences are a source of deepening knowledge of God and self.

Inspired by God's Word in the silence
we share from our hearts.

Thank You For Joining Us!

Prayer Leader:

Cheryl Keehner, CSA
9/22/15

Centering Space:
14812 Lake Ave | Lakewood
www.centeringspace.org 216.228.7451
centeringspace@srsfcharity.org

To Ponder: News and Views of Reform Jews blog

One of the most important, empowering and transforming ways to transform our lives and the universe we experience around us is through love. As you live from the heart, you are in harmony with the Universe. You are in the flow where things happen more effortlessly. You listen for the still small voice within you, guiding you with love in all that you do. As you live from the heart, you know that the universe is friendly and always working for you, even if you cannot always recognize how. You trust as you listen, knowing that you are being shown the way of love. When you live from your heart, you feel your oneness with others and with all of life. You become a powerful force for good and the source of love for humanity and all life.

Reading: Turn: A Poem for the High Holy Days by Mark Wendel

Turn the Torah scroll.
Turn back to Genesis for the reading.

As the Torah scroll is rolled,
one person is on one side pulling forward –
back to the beginning.
One person is on the other side releasing the past.

Both together.
Pull and release,
turning one scroll;
allowing the other scroll to be turned,
not too loose and not too tight.

Too tight
is too much tension, too much strain.
Too loose is not enough tension –
the parchment will be too separated, not bound together enough.

Just enough tension.

Turn.
Turn toward the one I have offended.
Too much tension is there;
the relationship is strained.
Ask for forgiveness.

Sharing...

a word...

a phrase...

a reflection...