

Untranslatable:
Spirituality and Tenalach,
Komorebi,
Waldeinsamkeit

Saturday, May 5 9:30—12:30
Poetry with Kim Langley

The whole human family seems to feel an urge to get outside in the Spring. There's a powerful feeling of restiveness that might just be a reflection of a holy beckoning to expand, to unfurl, to shimmer like new leaves in sunlight. Come to the poetry circle and there we will explore together the spiritual call of nature as it has been described in fascinating world wisdom traditions, as well as in the works of discerning poets. You'll be the richer for knowing about Tenalach, Komorebi, and Waldeinsamkeit!

$20

Register by May 1

Come at 9 am for coffee, tea, and morning snacks.

Kim's Personal Mission Statement: To be of service to the world, delivering exceptional workshops that enable personal and professional growth, enhance authentic interpersonal and self-reflection skills, and make people want to live life to the fullest!

Centering Space Renew · Refresh · Refocus

14812 Lake Ave., Lakewood, OH 44107 | 216.228.7451
centeringspace@srs charity.org | www.centeringspace.org

A Sponsored Ministry of the Sisters of Charity of St. Augustine