

Let there be Peace on Earth

The Boys Choir of Harlem

Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.
Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.
With God as Creator, family all are we.
Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me let this be the moment now.
With every step I take let this be my solemn vow
To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally
Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.

We've Got Options

Our prayer is characterized by silence ~

Be still and know that I am God!

In that silence we listen for a new word.
God is present in all our lives.
God cares for us, and our life experiences are a source of deepening knowledge of God and self.

Inspired by God's Word in the silence
we share from our hearts.

To Ponder:

Sacred Fire by Ronald Rolheiser

We grow in maturity to the degree that we come out from behind the doors we have locked because of fear and begin to define family in a way that is ever more ecumenical, interfaith, post ideological, and non-discriminatory.

We are mature only when we are compassionate as God is compassionate-namely when our sun shines both on those we like and on those we do not. There comes a time when it is time to exchange our cherished placards for a basin and a towel.

The Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy

Jesus said:.

“ Love others as you have been loved. ..
You will do the works I have done and even more.”

Feed the hungry
Give water to thirsty
Clothe the naked
Visit the imprisoned
Bury the dead
Spread the gospel
Teach
Counsel the doubtful
Bear wrongs patiently
Pray for the living and the dead
