

Could I Have This Dance? Ann Murray

I'll always remember the song they were playing
The first time we danced, and I knew
As we swayed to the music, and held to each other
I fell in love with you

Could I have this dance, for the rest of my life
Could you be my partner, every night
When we're together, it feels so right
Could I have this dance for the rest of my life

I'll always remember, that magic moment
When I held you close, to me
As we moved together, I knew forever
You're all I'll ever need

May I Have This Dance?

Our prayer is characterized by silence ~

Be still and know that I am God!

In that silence we listen for a new word.
God is present in all our lives.
God cares for us, and our life experiences are a source of deepening knowledge of God and self.

Inspired by God's Word in the silence
we share from our hearts.

To Ponder: Joyce Rupp The Playground of God
(with writer's artistic and mystic license)

I share my treasures with you, I constantly send you blessings from the depths and beauty of each day.

I seal your smile with sunshine; I leaf your walk of life with the tenderest of greens and the deepest of autumns.

I catch at least three rainbows, and set a seagull on each one to sail you constant hellos
from the heart of the transcendent.

I whisper wonderings from silent nooks of mountain tops and the humming heart of the sea.

I call forth the deer and all tender animals to run with you in happiness.

I ask each tree in her most majestic mood
to cover you with constant care.

I breeze in billowy clouds to share their rainy wanderings when you need to feel washed anew.

I take you by the hand and hold your heart near mine,
to let you hear the constant love bounding forth from me.

And most of all I join my heart with yours and have you share the path of love that I have caused and carved in the shadows of your soul.

Reading: Zephaniah 3:14-18

Shout for joy daughter of Zion,
Israel shout aloud!
Rejoice, exult with all your heart,
daughter of Jerusalem!

Yahweh has driven your enemies away.
Yahweh, the king of Israel, is in your midst;
you have no more evil to fear...

Do not let your hands fall limp.
Yahweh, your God, is in your midst...
He will exult with joy over you,
He will renew you by His love;
He will dance with shouts of joy for you as on a day of festival.
